Three African Kings Visit Brighton in 1895:
An Online Black History Education Resource

Our History

How should Brighton Museum tell the story of the Three Kings?

What do you want to know?

When?

Who ?

What?

Why?

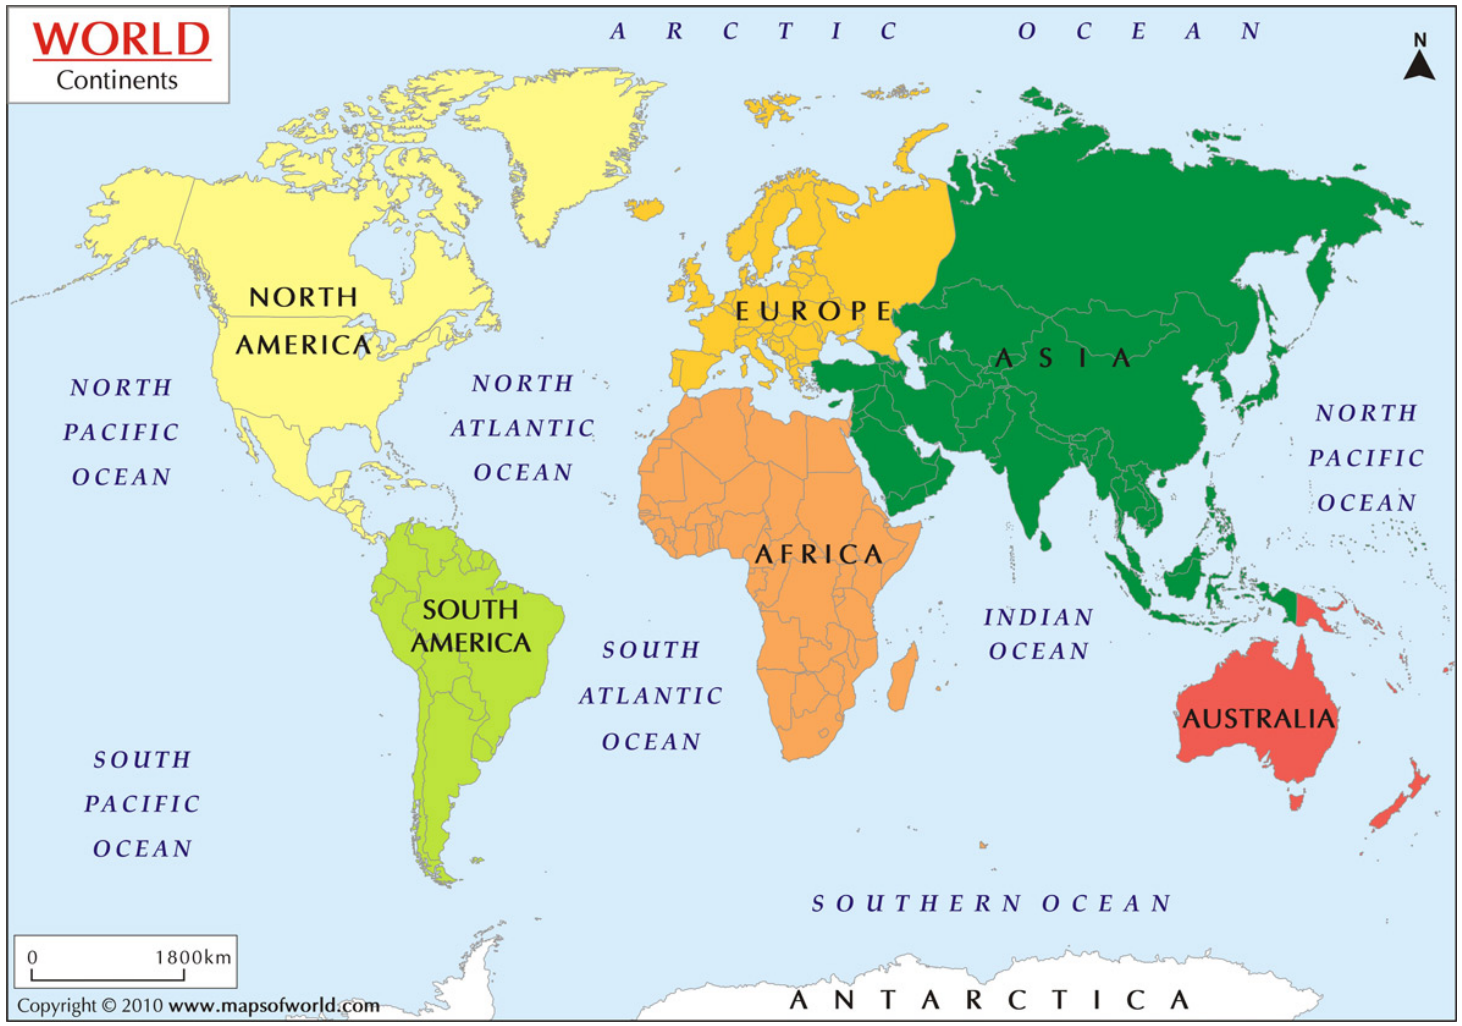

Where?

Historians are always asking questions!

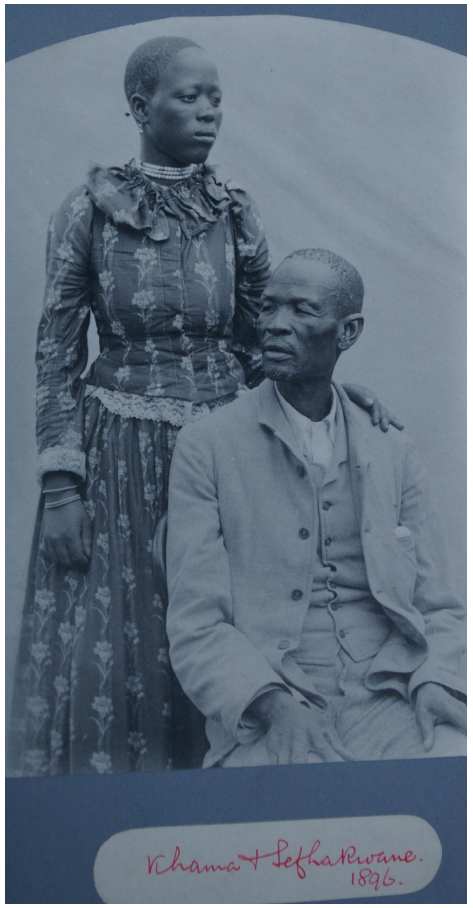

Where did the Kings come from?

Who were the Kings?

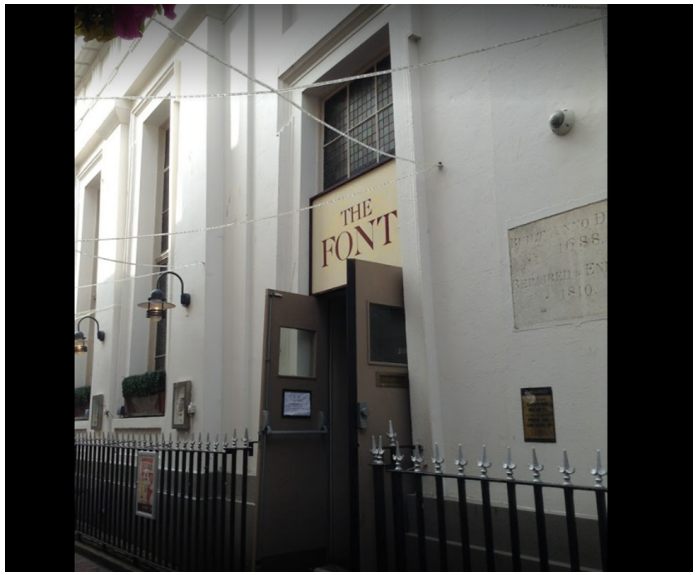

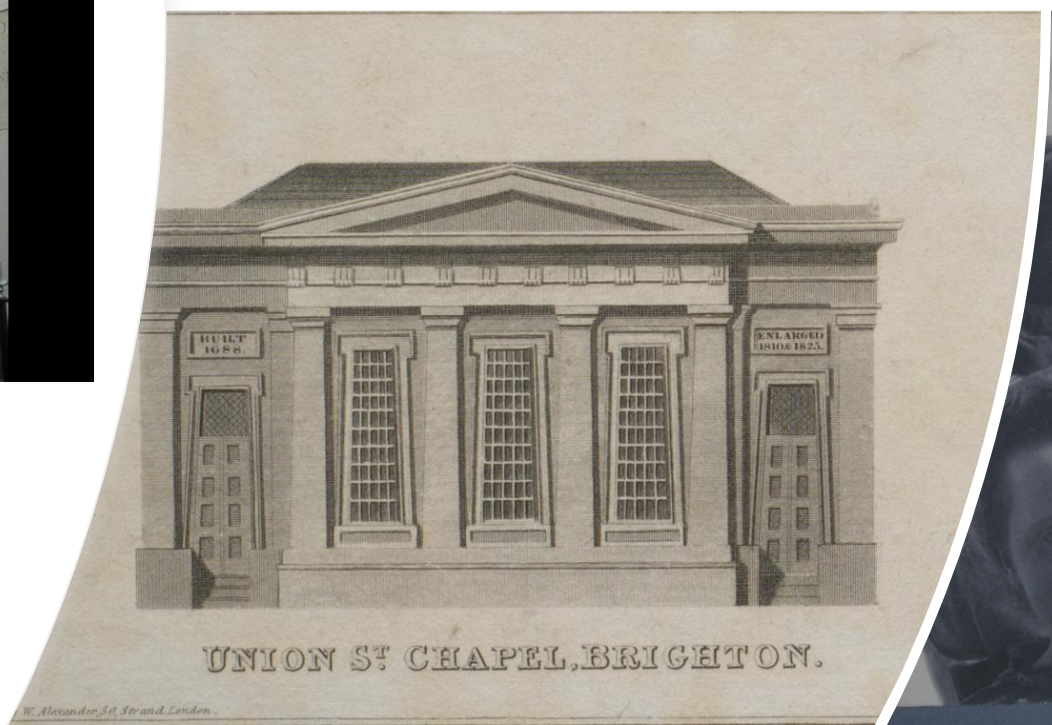

Who were the Willoughbys?

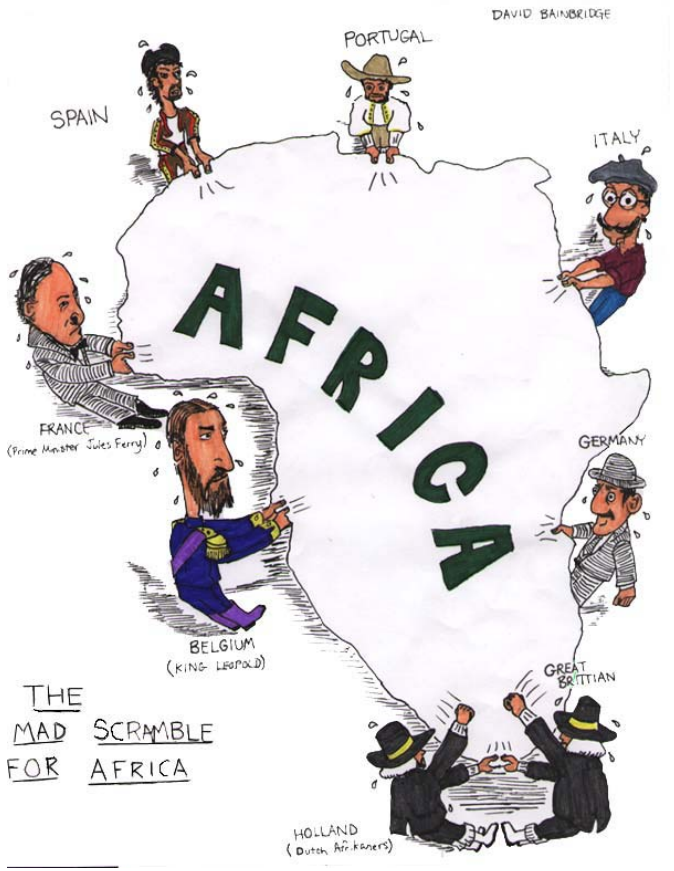

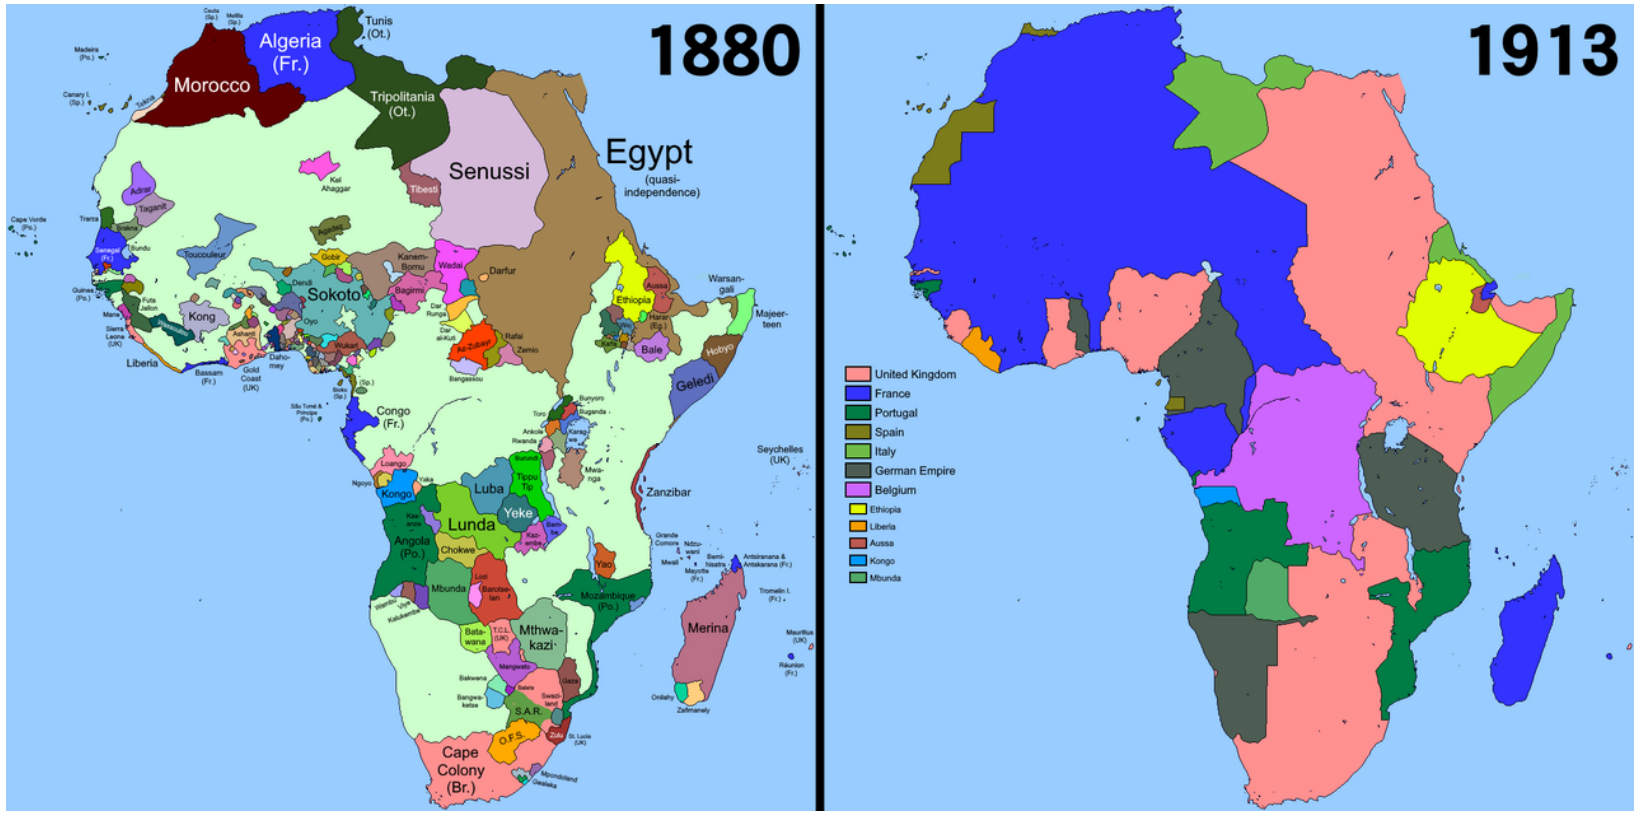

What was happening in Africa?

Why did the Kings come to Britain?

What else do you want to know?

When?

Who ?

What?

Why?

Where?

Historian always ask more questions!

What did they see when they were here?

Queens road Brighton in 1895

Kings road Brighton

Brighton Aquarium

Places the Kings visited

Visit to Elm Grove School

[Maypole dancing]

Elm Grove School in 1910

Clip from London Waldorf School

What happened?

What happened in the long term?

Free Education

Free Healthcare

Democracy

What was the role of Howard Willoughby?

How important do you think Howard Willoughby was?

Learning check

When?

Who ?

What?

Why?

Where?

What have you learned?

How should Brighton Museum tell this story?

What story should the museum tell?

- Describe to your friends what you think this story is really about.
- If you need help ask your teacher for some ideas

Your challenge

- Choose 6 or 7 items which you think will help to tell the story you want to tell about the visit of the Kings
- Write small cards explaining what the exhibit tells us and how it explains the story of the visit by the Three Kings
- Give your exhibition a name which will make people in Sussex want to visit