Three African Kings Visit Brighton in 1895:
An Online Black History Education Resource

What story should the museum tell?

How an 8-year-old boy can change history
How Brighton and Sussex were involved in a major world event that saved Botswana from becoming a colony
That the people of Britain and Brighton welcomed the kings from Botswana and it was a positive trip to celebrate connecting with different people
How the history of the Font pub links across the world to people in Botswana
Link the statue of Queen Victoria in Brighton with the statues of the Kings in Gaberone
Link all the items Charles brought from Bechuanaland to the story of the Kings' visit

The story of the scramble for Africa and why the people of Botswana celebrate the visit to Britain and Brighton
The story of what the Kings saw in Brighton and what it must have been like through their eyes